THOMPSON ENCOURAGES EVERYONE TO TAKE PART IN THE “RED FRIDAY” CAMPAIGN

OTTAWA- Myron Thompson, Member of Parliament for Wild Rose, is inviting everyone to take part in the “Red Friday” campaign to support our troops and their families.

“I want to make it clear that this campaign is non-political and non-partisan. The concept of wearing something red- whether a shirt, jacket, cap, bandana or whatever- every Friday is meant to let the soldiers and their spouses and children know they are not alone,” said Thompson.

“We appreciate the sacrifices they are making on our behalf and want to thank them for their service to our country. This is not about supporting the war, this is about supporting the people,” stated Thompson.

The “Red Friday” campaign was launched by the wives of soldiers posted in Afghanistan and is catching on across the country.

“I think it’s important to support our men and women who wear the uniform for our nation. It doesn’t matter where the troops are sent, they are ultimately putting their lives on the line and this is a small way we can support them,” concluded Thompson.
