THOMPSON PAYS TRIBUTE TO OLYMPIANS FROM WILD ROSE

Ottawa- Myron Thompson, Member of Parliament for Wild Rose extended heartfelt congratulations to both Sara Renner and Chandra Crawford of Canmore for their tremendous showing at the 2006 Turin Olympics.

“The Olympics are the pinnacle of athletic achievement and those who go on to win medals have a special place in Olympic history. Their victory in cross country skiing was an inspiration to all Canadians, and stands as a testament to their years of hard work and sacrifice,” said Thompson.

“Throughout the games, all the athletes proudly displayed our national colours and were outstanding ambassadors for both sports and our country. Together, they paved the way for the next generation of Canadians to engage in competitive sports,” stated Thompson.

“My hat goes off to all Canadian Olympians, for their dignity, respect and dedication. You made Canada very proud!” concluded Thompson.
