THOMPSON PAYS TRIBUTE TO PARALYMPIAN BRIAN McKEEVER OF CANMORE

OTTAWA- Myron Thompson, Member of Parliament for Wild Rose issued the following statement on the closing of the IXth Paralympic Winter Games in Turin, Italy.

"I want to extend my sincere congratulations to all the paralympians from Wild Rose and in particular Brian McKeever of Canmore. As everyone knows, Brian won three medals during the games, two gold and one bronze in the cross country race and biathlon," said Thompson.

"I feel that the paralympics are the pinnacle of sports excellence and Brian's achievements at the games are a testament to his dedication to sport. He is truly among the best in the world," stated Thompson.

"Throughout the games, Brian clearly demonstrated what can be achieved through consistent effort and conviction. Brian and his brother Robin are truly role models for all Canadians and I salute you both for these outstanding achievements," concluded Thompson.
